...avalanche (fyne ales)

well balanced with a good body and a refreshing citrus hop profile.

...march of the penguins (williams bros.)

this creamy dark stout, deep chocolate in colour has a nose of roast malts, coffee, licourice & orange peel. the aromas carry on into the flavour with a smooth mouthfeel, rich malty start, fresh hoppy middle & a delicious lingering orange after taste. sure to get you marching again on those cold winter evenings.

...seven giraffes (williams bros.)

a deep gold with aromas of elderflower and citrus hops, followed by sweet caramel. on the tongue the biscuity malts are perfectly balanced with the bitterness of the hops, freshness of the lemon & lingering floral elderflower aftertaste.

...birds and bees (williams bros.)

this bright, golden ale is a blend of pale malt, cascade and bobek hops with a late infusion of fresh elderflowers and lemon zest. fruity, aromatic and deliciously refreshing.

...bearface lager (drygate)

heavy on the hops, light on the tongue. clean and crisp citrus hints. lager that refreshed the body. vigorous!

...outaspace apple ale (drygate)

apples and ale get hitched to cosmic effect. improbable concoction. fairytale ending. aromahopperty with crunch!

...gladeye ipa (drygate)

inspired by trident-forging cyclops of brute strength and singular vision. smooth caramel citrus zest. giant ipa.

...nastro azzurro (peroni brewery)

italian pish.

...budweiser (anheuser-busch inbev)
